After 14 years as a Regional Manager working with an American MNC dealing with global multi-million petrol chemical projects, Herman joined the Real Estate Industry in 1994.

It was during this time that he became interested in Feng Shui after observing that many of his clients engaged Feng Shui Masters before purchasing properties through him. He started reading books on this.

Under the guidance of Master Vincent Koh, he graduated from the Singapore Polytechnic on the Principles of Feng Shui in 1998 (1st Intake). He went on to learn Bazi (Four Pillars of Destiny), Zi Wei Dou Shu, Mian Shiang (Face Reading), Flying Stars and I-Ching.

Currently, Herman is a member of the Singapore Feng Shui Center and the International Feng Shui Center.

He runs his own real estate company and have trained hundreds of real estate agents on Sales and Marketing skills. Herman is an active Council member with the Institute of Estate Agents. He is also a Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS, U.S.A), a member of National Association of Realtors (NAR, U.S.A), a Certified Professional Trainer and recently form his own training business.
